What makes me ME?

A workbook

What makes a person who they are?

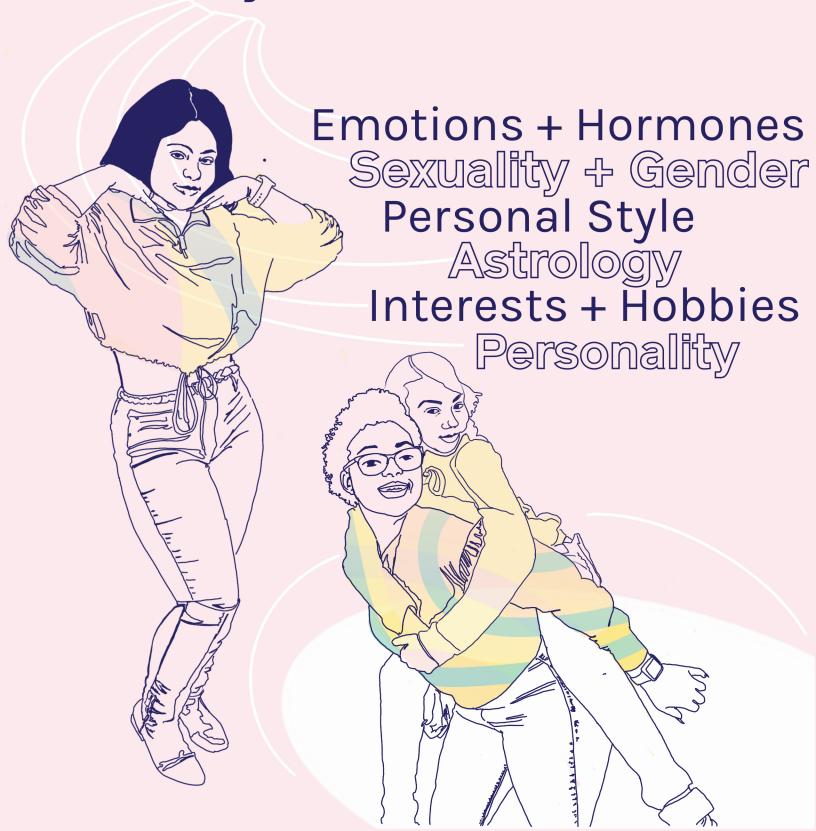

Special thanks to our teaching partner Yexenia Vanegas

Explore what makes you you! This is an interactive workbook created in partnership with People in Education and Burton International Academy in Detroit. Based on the core aspects of identity that Burton students wanted to talk about; we created interview questions for getting to know yourself.

Reflect on the questions in each section independently or interview a friend!

The more we can make space to cultivate a sense of self, the more self-aware we become.

Young people at Burton defined six aspects of identity that make them who they are:
